Medium Plus Ride

Not surprisingly considering the weather forecast, there weren't many takers for the long ride today. Those that had turned up decided to join the medium plus ride to Beningbrough. The rain soon started as forecast. After Farnham, a small group went ahead & at Boroughbridge a few decided to head home via various routes while the remaining 4, myself, Phil, Jeannie & Andrew decided to carry on with the planned route through Helperby, Flawith & Tollerton to Beningbrough. The rain was going to ease at 11am (so Phil told us), but instead it just seemed to get heavier. We eventually arrived at the café for a very welcome break & by the time we set off again it had finally stopped raining. It was a steady ride home in the afternoon sunshine – we were all glad we had stuck it out through the rain. Approx 53 miles. Jill
