Poddlers Ride

Four of us did a pensioners outing up to Beckwithshaw, down Penny Pot Lane on to Hampsthwaite via Rowden Lane, ignoring my suggestions of cutting back to Harrogate at every available point. Pedalling onwards and downwards and upwards and downwards yet again, upwards to Clint, and downwards to Shaw Mills and upwards to Thornton, and downwards to Ripley and after a quick toilet stop in the car park at Ripley upwards once again and back to Harrogate. A short but hilly very beautiful ride, which must be done again. Photos are of the poddlers at the top of the hill after Shaw Mills CG
