

Wednesday, February 25, 2009
EG's Ride

---

Snowdrops in profusion were the order of the day. There was a good turnout in mild and patchy sunlight and we decided to head North to get a "wind-assisted" return home. So it was off to Ripon, Wath, and Snape where there were as many snowdrops as we get daffodils at this pretty village.

We took lunch at Masham where Peter bemoaned the lack of loose parsnips at ASDA. Malcolm Y soon sorted this out on the road to Grewelthorpe where he packed Peters bag with alternative root vegetables i.e. sugar beets that had spilled off a farm truck. Then it was a fast run home with Eric and Bridget getting into bike swapping in a big way. 55 miles. Spring is (almost) here! Martin W

